Feminist Debates on the Limits of Labour Law

Un/Safe at work? The new ILO Convention against Violence and Harassment

On June 14th, the ILO Convention concerning the elimination of violence and harassment in the world of work will enter into force in Germany.

On this occasion, the Center for Interdisciplinary Labour Law Studies at European University Viadrina hosts a public event enabling a discussion about the merits of the Convention's approaches – and about challenges for the implementation in Germany.

The event will be held in English.
