ICC Mediation Competition 2018: Apply now!

What is the ICC International Commercial Mediation Competition about?

The ICC International Commercial Mediation Competition is the biggest and most prestigious mediation moot. It is organized by the International Chamber of Commerce (ICC) and takes place every year in early February in Paris. 66 student teams from all over the world meet and compete performing in the role of parties and lawyers in a commercial mediation scenario under the supervision of distinguished ADR professionals.

Where and when?
Paris, February 2018

Why participate?
- Develop and improve skills in negotiation and mediation
- Train with internationally renowned mediators as coaches
- Gain insight into realistic commercial dispute scenarios
- Take part in pre-moots
- Experience the unique spirit of an international mediation event
- Meet students from all over the world
- Obtain 3 SWS in Key Competencies (Schlüsselqualifikationen)

Schedule for 2017/18

June: Application process and selection of participants – team application to the ICC

If the team is nominated by ICC: October through January: Intensive mediation training including participation in November in the Bucerius Law School Mediation Moot

>>> February: Trip to ICC Mediation Competition 2018 (most costs will be covered)!

How to apply

Applicants: Students with knowledge in mediation/negotiation and very good English language skills and with availability for training sessions as indicated above.

Application Process: Provide us with a short Letter of Motivation in English until Friday, June 23, 2017. Afterwards, you will be invited to an interview with the coaches. Please send your documents to sekretariat-glaesser@europa-uni.de.

For more information:

https://iccwbo.org/dispute-resolution-services/professional-development/international-commercial-mediation-competition/

The EUV will apply to participate in the ICC Mediation Competition together with TH Wildau with a joint team.

The EUV part of the team will be organized by Prof. Dr. Ulla Glaesser.

If you have questions, contact us via kueck@europa-uni.de